

GENERAL SECRETARY

(Johannesburg)

FEDUSA the second largest Trade Union Federation in South Africa needs the services of an ethical, highly competent professional as its General Secretary.

The General Secretary reporting to the National Executive Committee will provide leadership, the strategic direction, be the official spokesperson for Federation. Representing the Federation Nationally and Internationally, building and maintaining good relationships with affiliates, forging strategic partnerships, recruiting new affiliates, fundraising and management of FEDUSA will be focus areas.

See detailed job description on FEDUSA website www.fedusa.org.za

Candidates applying should hold at least an applicable Honours degree (Masters preferably) with 15 years post qualification experience including at least 5 years within a leadership capacity. Proven experience of representing organisation within high-level structures, dealing with media (press) on different platforms, relationship building, and excellent knowledge of South Africa labour relations and legal frameworks will be a requirement. Experience within Trade Unions at Senior Level will be an advantage.

The compensation package for the position will be market related and commensurate with qualifications and experience

Interested candidates must e-mail their updated resume to admin@fedusa.org.za by 10 February 2019

